CONSULTATIVE MEETING OF YEMENI STUDENTS ABROAD CONCLUDED.
=====

ADEN. 22ND AUGUST. ANA.

The participants in the third consultative meeting of the Yemeni Students abroad stressed upon the importance of the continuation of holding such meetings between the Students Councils abroad and the higher echelons of the Central Council of Yemeni Students abroad for laying down the solutions for all the worries being faced by the students abroad and to exchange experience and activities.

This came in the resolutions and recommendations adopted by the meeting following the conclusion of its works this morning.

The resolutions and recommendations pointed out that the Yemeni Youths while preparing to receive the Jubilee anniversary along with Yemeni Socialist Youth Union next February understands the importance of the celebration of this occasion which lies in the meanings and evidences carried by these celebrations which makes it a new motive for our youths to participate effectively in implementing the economic and social plans and programmes under the directives and leadership of the Yemeni Socialist Party.

The consultative meeting began its works yesterday during which it discussed a number of working papers related to the organisational cultural, information and educational activities of our students abroad.

MINISTER OF INDUSTRY RECEIVES FRENCH AMBASSADOR.

PRESS CONFERENCE BY REPRESENTATIVE OF D.F.L.P. IN ADEN

ADEN, Aug. 22 - ANA - Abu Farras representative of the Democratic Front for the Liberation of Palestine in Aden (D.F.L.P.) praised the firm stand of Democratic Yemen by the side of the Palestine revolution through the identity of stands and viewpoints between the Yemeni Socialist Party and the Palestine liberation Organisation.

In the press conference which was held this morning at the premises of the Palestine Liberation Organisation and in which a number of representatives of the Palestine resistance and correspondents of information media and local and foreign press, Abu Farras pointed out that the departure of the Palestine resistance from West Beirut does not mean defeat but means transfer to other positions for continuation of the march of the Palestine revolution in order to achieve the rights of the Palestinian people and build its independent state on its Palestinian national soil.

Abu Farras denied that there are international assurances for the departure of the Palestinian fighters from Lebanon and pointed out that the only assurances were the stand of the Palestinian people in the occupied territories and the stand of the Arab masses and the progressive forces and socialist community topped by the Soviet Union with them.

He pointed out that the recent events have gave way to many stands and outcomes in the Arab arena on the basis of which the Palestine resistance will review its relations and struggle with the Arab regimes.

As regards the international solutions for the solution of the Palestine issue he stressed upon the necessity that the Palestine Liberation Organisation is to take part in the discussions on the consideration that it is the representative of the Palestinian people and has the right to speak in the name of the Palestinian people.
